

Re: aftermath of sp2 update

Source:

http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.help\_and\_support/2004-08/9363.html

---

From: Gregg Cattanach (gcattanach-SKIP-_at_prodigy.net)

Date: 08/29/04

Date: Sun, 29 Aug 2004 12:35:31 GMT

"kurt" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:225801c48d92$d5ea4d0$a301280a@phx.gbl...

- > after installing sp2..computer would not even boot up.
- > Went into safe mode still couldn't get it going. Have to
- > reinstall (layover) windows. Now it finally boots up,
- > but have errors occuring left and right.
- > The procedure entry pointGETIUMS could not be located
- > in the dynamics library MSDART.DLL
- > 2..Specific Module could not be found Windows\bxxxs5.dll
- > 3..Springfld_Adv_Daemon: WksCal.exe entry point not
- > found.
- > 4..If I run McAfee shield..it tells me that I do not have
- > enough resources??? and to close some applications and
- > restart....
- > To top it all off the system boots up slower than ever
- > and also shuts down really slow.
- > I really understood win98...XP is nice but I do not
- > know much about it. Please give me some idea what I need
- > to do here.....PLEASE and a THANKS
- >
- >

It sounds like you had a very sloppy windows installation before SP2, and/or lots of viruses and spyware on your system.

If I was getting all of the problems you listed, I would start with a clean WinXP install and then apply SP2 before re-installing any of your software applications. (Of course, backup all your data files first.)

Gregg C.