Hi Power Mack,

Try this solution, courtesy of MVP Jim Byrd.

If you wish to restore Content Advisor to its original condition (because of your kids) you can obtain a Microsoft program (CA-Reset.exe - 89.5K) to do this here: http://www.kellys-korner-xp.com/reqs_edits/CA-Reset.exe (listed on line 283) NOTE: Using CA-Reset will completely delete your Approved List - everything starts like brand new, so consider this before you use it.

Follow-up with a malware cleanup. Complete information is here: <http://aumha.org/a/quickfix.php>

Content Advisor blocks all web browsing.

I can not remove an item on Approved Sites.

The item is a blank (14 spaces) with the Never checked.

Action: Delete

Apply, OK

I go back in and the item is still there, like a virus.

Thanks
