I'd suggest going to Myspace's website for support of MySpace may seem minor but my problem is that i cant see any of the myspace layouts.

When i go to the sites that have layouts to pick from, i try to "preview layout" and i cant see them there either and i have tried to contact myspace but no reply. My friends can see my layout on my profile but i cant see any of them on anyones including my own. im wondering if it is a settings problem. please reply to my plee for help to resolve this thorn in my side.

thank you, jason
