

Re: Can't Save but Sure am getting Aggravated

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.moviemaker/2004-07/0732.html>

---

From: nelsie (nelsie\_at\_discussions.microsoft.com)

Date: 07/11/04

Date: Sun, 11 Jul 2004 11:54:02 -0700

John,

I did have a MP3, converted it to wav. No go.

I have some stills that are in jpg, and some avi files. total length is right at 3 minutes.

Can you help?

"John Kelly" wrote:

> Hi there,

>

> Movie Maker does not work well with MP3 and MPeg files. Do you have any of > these in your project? If yes it would be a good idea to change them to WAV and > AVI respectively. There is free software that will do both. You can take a look > at the Video Help Link and the Audacity link on my website for programs to do > the conversion .

> --

> Best Wishes.....John Kelly

> www.the-kellys.org

> www.the-kellys.co.uk

> ---

> All material gained from other sources is duly acknowledged. No Value is > obtained by publishing in any format other peoples work

>