

Re: System File Check

Source:

http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.perform_maintain/2004-03/3885.html

From: Rocket J. Squirrel (rocky_at_bullwinkle.com)

Date: 03/24/04

Date: Wed, 24 Mar 2004 14:38:49 -0500

The people who make the updates are the same people who made the original CD. They know what to do. You know something, you worry too much. Go outside and enjoy the beautiful spring weather. A little Cabernet wouldn't hurt, either.

Rocky

"rhymer" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:12caf01c411d4$cd57d180$a401280a@phx.gbl...

> It certainly worked, but how do I know that files modified > by downloaded updates have not now been overwritten with > original files which are 12 months older?

>

> Many thanks for your help, I really appreciate it.

> >-----Original Message-----

> >Not to worry. Just stick in your XP CD and you'll be fine.

> >

> >To explain: Succeeding versions of the XP CD may have > service packs already

> >included.

> >

> >Rocky

> >

> >"rhymer" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in > message

> >news:f48601c41111$ef85dc20$a601280a@phx.gbl...

> >> On xP Home when I run System File Checker it asks for > SP2

> >> CD Rom. I don't have one! All my updates are downloads > >> from Microsoft.

> >> What do I do?

> >

> >

> >.

> >