

Re: SP1

Source:

http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.perform_maintain/2004-06/3046.html

From: Jupiter Jones [MVP] (jones_jupiter_at_hotnomail.com)

Date: 06/18/04

Date: Fri, 18 Jun 2004 11:29:08 -0600

Bob;

"XP Corporate"?

There is no such thing.

There is however Volume License

If that is what you have, you need to contact your business IT department.

--

Jupiter Jones [MVP]

<http://www3.telus.net/dandemar/>

"Bob" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:282f01c45521$3519c6e0$7d02280a@phx.gbl...

> I though I had caught the SASSER virus. I had downloaded > the fixes from MS but nothing would cure the problem > (instant reboot) So I reformatted the winxp drive :(and > reloaded xp. all ok. now try to load sp1 and the problem > returns (instant reboot) undo sp1 and all ok! I want to > fix this so when SP2 comes around I can update. Any Ideas > as to why it reboots only with SP1 installed, The load > sequence is (1) Load XP Corporate, test ok, run the fixes > and scans, no virus etc.. found, (2) load sp1, exhibits > all the symptoms of a sasser virus with instant reboots.
> (3) Unload SP1 all ok
>
> Help!
>