

Re: graphics problem?

Source: <http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/WinXP/microsoft.public.windowsxp.video/2004-09/0095.html>

From: Cari \ (MS-MVP) (Newsgroups1_at_coribright.com)

Date: 09/02/04

Date: Thu, 2 Sep 2004 12:37:25 -0700

nVidia are absolutely fine, although you do have a very low end card. I really believe your PhotoShop is freezing because your PC specs are not adequate for the applications.

--

Cari (MS-MVP Printing, Imaging & Hardware)

www.coribright.com

"karen" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:049901c49084$9c1bffe0$a401280a@phx.gbl...

> hi graham,

>

> i have psver 7... it freezes some of the time, but mostly > with bryce when i render or use the paint can. my files > are sorta big because i use bryce alot. the files i use > in bryce are 3ds, obp, ... that sort of thing... in ps i > use mostly jpg. and when it freezes the only thing that > gets it un stuck is to use the restart button on the > pc... i hate using that cuz then i have to go thru scan > disk. any ideas? i read that nvidia video was not > compatible with xp even tho it says they are... am i > using a pc that is not setup for all the graphic programs > i use?

>

> thanks,

> k