

Re: I.E. 6.0 Browser Content Menu – remove item

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.inetexplorer.ie6.browser/2004-02/9852.htm>

---

From: Alan Edwards (edwards_at_southcom.com.au)

Date: 02/25/04

Date: Thu, 26 Feb 2004 06:01:13 +1100

Start-Run-Regedit.

Navigate to this key and see if your offending item is there in the list of sub-keys. If so, then remove it.

HKEY_CURRENT_USER\Software\Microsoft\Internet Explorer\MenuExt

...Alan

--

Alan Edwards, MS MVP W95/98 Systems

<http://dts-l.org/index.html>

In microsoft.public.windows.inetexplorer.ie6.browser, "Kathy Ryan"

<anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote:

>The content menu (right click in browser window) has a new >entry - a porn selection. I have tried anti-spyware, >history removal, Internet Temp files removal, Restricted

>Site entry, Cookies removal, Windows 98 SE registry >search, and Microsoft Knowledge Base, all to no avail.

>How can I remove this entry from the content menu?

>Thank you,

>--Kathy