

Re: IE6SP1 Installation Problem

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.inetexplorer.ie6.browser/2004-09/1719.htm>

From: PA Bear (PABear_at_mvps.org)

Date: 09/08/04

Date: Wed, 8 Sep 2004 01:12:57 -0400

See replies to your original thread.

--

~PA Bear

Bao Pu wrote:

> This is a continuation of my earlier post regarding The IE6 Service Pack > 1.
>
> PA Bear suggested: "To assure a clean install, your anti-virus application > should be disabled and all other running processes closed before > installing > anything, including Windows Updates."
>
>
> I did what you suggested. No luck.
>
> I chose a "minimal installation." After it finished everything it could > do, > it told me "not all components were installed successfully: IE6 Web > Browser,
> IE Exception pack, Offline Browsing pack, Advanced Authoring, Address > Book,
> Outlook Express, IE readme." It told me to restart to complete > installation.
> Upon restart, I see that "Problem with Shortcut: The shortcut 'Resume > Windows Update Installation.Ink' refers to a location that is > unavailable."
>
> I have searched my computer for IE6SETUP.EXE to see if I could run it > again,
> but it isn't here.
>
> any suggestions?
>
> Thanks
> scott