

Re: Cannot Get to Some Web Sites in IE 6.0

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.inetexplorer.ie6.browser/2004-11/2047.htm>

From: PA Bear (PABear_at_mvps.org)

Date: 11/11/04

Date: Thu, 11 Nov 2004 14:19:17 -0500

C'mon, fifth time may be the charm!

Eric wrote:

- > With IE 6 and XP SP2, I can get to some web sites but not others. For
- > example, I can get to Google, CNN, EBay, Amazon, Microsoft, MSN and
- > Earthlink, but I cannot get to the pages that display web mail at
- > hotmail.com or Earthlink's web mail page. I also cannot register some
- > software, like Norton Anti-Virus at the Symantec web site. I am using a
- > dial-up connection. When I go to the pages listed above that I cannot
- > reach, I either get a Page Not Found screen in IE or a message that I
- > could not be connected to the server. If I go to other computers I can
- > get to the web sites I cannot reach on my PC. I am running NAV 2005 and
- > the MS firewall is on. I have turned off the firewall and uninstalled
- > NAV with no difference. MSN support told me to reinstall Windows XP.