

Re: trusted sites

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.inetexplorer.ie6.browser/2004-12/1502.htm>

From: Altrüs (altrus_at_zonetechs.com)

Date: 12/09/04

Date: Thu, 9 Dec 2004 15:00:24 -0500

:~)

No problem, glad to be of assistance,

Regards,

Altrüs

"JrSnyper" <JrSnyper@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:4389B374-27BA-4539-8245-CA8BCB1233C7@microsoft.com...

: This very helpful

:

: "Altrüs" wrote:

:

:> Hi,

:>

:> You could use the installer to set a predefined registry patch which adds

:> the appropriate sites to the trusted zone. You could also go so far as to only

:> set the necessary attributes necessary for your site, and block the rest (to :> allay potential security concerns).

:>

:> You can read more about physics of editing the registry for that specific

:> purpose below:

:>

:> Description of Internet Explorer security zones registry entries

:> Article ID : 182569

:> Last Review : November 9, 2004

:> Revision : 1.0

:> <http://support.microsoft.com/?kbid=182569>

:>

:>

:> If you have further questions or comments, please do not hesitate to post to

:> this thread,

:>

Re: trusted sites

:> Best regards,
:>
:> Altrus
:>
:>
:>
:> "JrSnyper" <JrSnyper@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message
:> news:542A7869-66B4-41A0-805F-1FAF6CF29E73@microsoft.com...
:> : Is their any way to use a MSI installer file to add sites to the trusted
:> : sites? Or maybe a vbscript. I made a web add that uses Microsoft TsWeb but :> : some of the thing I used in it require me add the site to my trusted sites in
:> : IE. Or if some one knows how to make TsWeb (MsRdp.Ocx) start a program with :> : out needing to use trusted sites. Here is command I used that needs the site
:> : to be trusted:
:> : MsRdpClient.SecuredSettings2.StartProgram = Path
:> : I have looked for a OCX that does not require the sit to trusted.
:> : --
:> : Chris
:> : 20941 East St.
:> : Southfield, MI 48034
:>
:>
:>