

Re: pdf links freezing my ie6

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.inetexplorer.ie6.browser/2005-06/msg0062>

- From: "Daniel Crichton" <msnews@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Wed, 8 Jun 2005 10:55:31 +0100
-

Tom wrote on Wed, 8 Jun 2005 17:25:59 +1000:

- > A week or two ago my IE6 browser (in Win XP)
- > started freezing if I clicked any links to pdf docs.
- >
- > It begins to open the pdf doc, then nothing ...
- >
- > I uninstalled Adobe Acrobat version 6, and
- > and installed Adobe Acrobat version 7.
- > – No joy.
- >
- > Tried downloading and installing SP2
- > – no joy.
- >
- > It's a work PC so it's got a virus checker and
- > I'm pretty sure I haven't even been near any
- > sites remotely likely to be sus nor had any
- > strange email attachments and the security
- > level is always at least medium – I don't think
- > it's had a chance to get any malware.
- >
- > Can't seem to find other posts or MSKB articles
- > about this.
- >
- > Any suggestions?

Could be very large PDFs – occasionally my IE appears to stop responding, then some time later will spring to life. I think it depends on if the server you're downloading the PDF from supports byte serving or not – if not, then nothing will appear until the entire PDF is downloaded.

Dan

.

Re: pdf links freezing my ie6

- Follow-Ups:

- ◆ Re: pdf links freezing my ie6

- ◇ From: Tom

- References:

- ◆ pdf links freezing my ie6

- ◇ From: Tom

- Prev by Date: Re: Verifying version installed

- Next by Date: Users losing Proxy Server settings when they uncheck User Proxy

- Previous by thread: pdf links freezing my ie6

- Next by thread: Re: pdf links freezing my ie6

- Index(es):

- ◆ Date

- ◆ Thread