I think it means you have a problem with the "Caps Lock" key being stuck on.

For more/better help, repost in an appropriate forum, this newsgroup is for Windows Media Center. When you do, you might want to post more information (i.e., all web pages, did this just start, have you update/installed anything lately, etc.)

I AM GETIING AN ERROR MESSAGE FROM INTERNET EXPLORER STATING THAT " OBJECT
VARIABLE OR WITH BLOCK VARIABLE NOT SET". WHAT DOES THIS MEAN AND HOW CAN IT
BE CORRECTED?
