

RE: Trusted domain not show in "Entire Directory" list.

Source:

http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.server.active_directory/2004-12/1512.html

From: Ryan G (RyanG_at_discussions.microsoft.com)

Date: 12/21/04

Date: Mon, 20 Dec 2004 16:59:02 -0800

Please disregard this entire post... The festive season is affecting low level brain functions.

It is not possible to add remote groups/users to the Domain Users/Admins/etc and Enterprise Admins groups.

Sorry all.

"Ryan G" wrote:

- > We're currently in the process of moving/upgrading to Win2k3 and successfully
- > created and moved all the existing users to a new domain in a testlab with no
- > problems.
- >
- > Now we've moved onto the real thing and are having some issues.
- >
- > We've setup the DNS replication between the 2 domains and can resolve
- > everything fine. The trust has been established and verifies fine from all
- > DC's at any end. However, I can't add any users from the external domain to
- > the local groups. ie. Add new_domain\administrator to old_domain\domain
- > admins and vice versa.
- >
- > The only clue that I've got is the following error log that is generated on
- > one of our GC's on the old domain every time you verify the trust;
- > -----
- > A Kerberos Error Message was received:
- > on logon session InitializeSecurityContext
- > Client Time:
- > Server Time:
- > Error Code: 0:29:5.0000 12/21/2004 (null) 0x7
- > Extended Error: KDC_ERR_S_PRINCIPAL_UNKNOWN
- > Client Realm:
- > Client Name:
- > Server Realm: OLD_DOMAIN.COM
- > Server Name: krbtgt/OLD_DOMAIN.COM

microsoft.public.windows.server.active_directory: RE: Trusted domain not show in "Entire Directory" list.

> Target Name: HOST/DC1.NEW_DOMAIN.LOCAL@OLD_DOMAIN.COM

> Error Text:

> File:

> Line:

> Error Data is in record data.

> -----

>

> Can somebody please help us out.