Hello Mike" none,

Changing a document needs the right delete. Changing content is deleting the old and writing the new.

Best regards

Hello Mike" none,

Should the user be able to change files, mean content in documents?

Best regards

Hi All,

One of my users keeps accidentally deleting a certain file on our shared drive. I've been trying to figure out how to use special permissions to allow

Re: use special permission to limit user file access this user read and write access, but not able to delete. Any thoughts on how I could do this? Thanks in advance for your response.
