

Re: Windows update problems

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.server.sbs/2004-08/8668.html>

From: Kevin Weilbacher [SBS-MVP] (kweilbacMVP_at_gte.net)

Date: 08/26/04

Date: Thu, 26 Aug 2004 17:15:30 -0400

try to go to the Windows Update page manually, and when you do, use https instead of http – like this:

"<https://v4.windows.....>" instead of "<http://v4.windows....>"

let us know if that works.

--

Kevin Weilbacher [SBS-MVP]

"The days pass by so quickly now, the nights are seldom long"

"Davy Graham" <anonymous@discussions.microsoft.com> wrote in message news:0f1d01c48baf$4c6ce880$a301280a@phx.gbl...

> Hi, since upgrading my SBS's internet connection from > dial-up to ADSL I can no longer run Windows update from > either the server or any client machines.

>

> Site loads OK and gets as far as performing scan, then > hangs at 0% completed, after 4-5 mins I get an error code > 0x80072EE2. This seems to be related to a problem with my > firewall configuration. ADSL is achieved through a > netgeat DG834G modem/router/NAT/firewall device.

>

> According to documentation supplied from Netgear I should > disable all software firewalls and use the hardware one > installed in the 834G, what do you think.

>

> All other internet access seems fine, but I would really > like to get my SBS box patched up.

>

> Thanks

>

> Davy Graham