Hey Jeremy,

David and Susan both fired over your post to me and I went in and got you into the group. Sorry for the slow response. You applied Friday and I was in Spokane over the weekend followed by a full week of work complete with an overnigher Tuesday/Wednesday. I hadn't been in the PSSBS list yet this week to approve new users.

Next meeting is a week from today over at Microsoft's Redmond Campus. We have one of the guys from the Mobile Team presenting. I am looking forward to seeing you there.

Thanks,
Steve
