

RE: Using USB Flash Drives With SBS

---

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.server.sbs/2005-06/msg04029.html>

---

- From: "M. Hayes" <MHayes@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Tue, 14 Jun 2005 11:25:03 -0700
-

Id see if there is a BIOS up grade, be carefull or you'll have to by them a new board or bios. Esp. if you're in a area the is suspect to power outages.

"David" wrote:

- > I have a customer that everytime he plugs in any USB flash drive, the
  - > computer locks up. If I uninstall the USB from the device manager, plug in
  - > the flash drive, scan for hardware changes, the computer re finds all the USB
  - > devices including the flash drive but does not lock up. If I shut down the
  - > computer plug in the flash drive and then turn on the computer, it boots with
  - > the flash drive and has no problems. Installed service pack 1 and still has
  - > the problem. Now the weird part, the printer and usb camera work with no
  - > problems.
  - >
  - > The board is an MSI with the 845g chipset.
  - >
  - > Any clue how to fix this problem?
  - >
  - .
-

• References:

- ◆ Using USB Flash Drives With SBS
- ◇ From: David

- Prev by Date: Change default user share location
- Next by Date: Ping 192.168.16.255 question
- Previous by thread: Using USB Flash Drives With SBS
- Next by thread: Re: Using USB Flash Drives With SBS
- Index(es):
  - ◆ Date
  - ◆ Thread