

Re: keep getting virus attachments

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.server.sbs/2005-09/msg00479.html>

- From: "Jeff Teel" <jdteel@xxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Thu, 1 Sep 2005 19:57:14 -0500
-

What was the indication that cadder's mail was coming through his ISP. He didn't say one way or the other about his mail being POP3 or SMTP.

Just Curious....

Jeff

"Hollis D. Paul" <Hollis@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message <news:VA.0000237b.016b387f@xx>

> In article <58KRe.252640\$on1.200932@clgrps13>, Cadder wrote:

- >> So we aren't getting the virus, but every day i get at
- >> least 10 of these. All my virus definitions are up to date. Is my
- >> server
- >> infected somehow?
- >>
- > If you were actually infected, you probably wouldn't be getting anything.
- > Trend is doing its job, and letting you know that it is. You might be
- > able to
- > kill the report to you, but the real question is why hasn't your ISP
- > service
- > deleted these virus messages before it gets into your server!! If they
- > don't
- > have anti-virus capabilities at their server, get a new ISP.

- >
- > Hollis D. Paul [MVP - Outlook]
- > Hollis@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx
- > Mukilteo, WA USA
- >
- >

.

-
- Follow-Ups:
 - ◆ Re: keep getting virus attachments
 - ◇ From: Hollis D. Paul

Re: keep getting virus attachments

- References:

- ◆ keep getting virus attachments

- ◇ From: cadder

- ◆ Re: keep getting virus attachments

- ◇ From: Hollis D. Paul

- Prev by Date: Re: Paswoord Expiration

- Next by Date: RE: Shared Fax Error (SBS 2000)

- Previous by thread: Re: keep getting virus attachments

- Next by thread: Re: keep getting virus attachments

- Index(es):

- ◆ Date

- ◆ Thread