

Re: Exchange Help Please!

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.server.sbs/2005-09/msg04020.html>

- From: "Frank McCallister SBS MVP" <anonymous>
 - Date: Thu, 22 Sep 2005 16:08:49 -0500
-

Hit send too soon! Your statement Telnet External mail.wolaz.com 25 connects is not correct from here. You may get a connect from within your local ISP but not from outside. I cannot telnet to mail.wolaz.com 25 or to your IP from Florida. Ck with your ISP to see if Port 25 is blocked!

--

Frank McCallister SBS MVP
COMPUMAC

"Wolarus" <wolarus@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message

news:Oo9Aaa6vFHA.464@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

> PROBLEM: CANNOT RECEIVE EMAIL FROM THE INTERNET TO EXCHANGE SERVER

> all mail goes to the backup MX – took it out temporarily and that just

> gives NDRs

> I've been at this for three days just trying to get the exchange server to > recieve mail but I'm stuck and need some things to try.

>

> _____
> SYSTEM: SBS 2003 Standard SP1

> Dell PowerEdge 1800 – dual Zeon 3.2 ht – 1 gig RAM – RAID 5 =300 gig

> 2 NIC cards – server side 192.168.16.2 – wild side 216.19.xx.115

>

> _____
> I've taken out all equipment between internet and the seconf NIC to get > this going (Iwill deal with the firewall after I figure out what's wrong)

>

> _____
> Website allows me to change my own DNS records for the domain wolaz.com

> I've added the records to point mail.wolaz.com at 216.19.xx.115

>

> wolaz.com. IN MX 10 mail.wolaz.com

> mail IN A 216.19.xx.115

>

> I've used the mail system for the website as the backup MX

>

>

> -----WHAT I'VE

> DONE-----

>

> _____
> Ran the CEICW the folowing settings with no Problems

> 1 – Direct Connection to Internet

Re: Exchange Help Please!

- > 2 – Broadband NIC to External NIC
- > Network NIC to internal NIC
- > 3 – IP – SUBnet – Gateway all from the ISP
- > DNS from my ISP (not Web Hosting Provider)
- > 4 – Firewall enabled (with email open)
- > 5 – Allow Access only to Outlook Web Access
- > 6 – Web Certificate [mww.wola.com] (alias to get to Outlook web Access)
- > 7– Enable Internet E–mail
- > 8 – Use DNS to Route (this Works!)
- > 9 – Use Exchange – Email is directed to the server
- > 10 – Email domain name [wolaz.com]
- > 11 – Attachments to a local directory
- > _____
- > SMTPDIAG
- > Checks out
- > _____
- > PortReporter says I'm listening on 25 TCP but not UDP
- > _____
- > DNS REPORT cannot connect to the port 25
- > _____
- > Telnet Local wolaz.com 25 connects
- > Telnet External wolaz.com 25 WIL NOT CONNECT
- > Telnet External mail.wolaz.com 25 connects
- > _____
- > Thank You in Advance for any help
- > Jeff
- >
- >
- >
- >
- >

• Follow-Ups:

◆ Re: Exchange Help Please!

◇ From: Wolarus

◆ Re: Exchange Help Please!

◇ From: Wolarus

- Prev by Date: Re: How to connect a remote user?
- Next by Date: Re: Seeing Server through VPN connection
- Previous by thread: Re: Exchange Help Please!
- Next by thread: Re: Exchange Help Please!
- Index(es):
 - ◆ Date
 - ◆ Thread