

Re: CLIENTS FIREWALL SETTINGS

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.server.sbs/2006-02/msg03427.html>

- From: "Rick F" <support.REMOVE@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Sat, 18 Feb 2006 20:58:01 -0600
-

Did you join the workstation by using <http://servername/ConnectComputer> ?
If you didn't then put the workstation back into a workgroup, delete the existing computer if you see it as a valid workstation in Server Management, delete it and re-add it, then go to that website to add it back to the domain the SBS way.

—
Rick Faria – MCSE / A+
RDF Technical Services – www.rdfts.com
Email: support at rdfts dot com

"D_tek" <Dtek@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message news:CAF2C486-D903-4A4A-8CC8-95DD383D4253@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx xp pro sp2 client joined to new domain. firewall settings are set to non-domain settings. I cannot get the gpo of the sbs2003 domain to change the local machines setting to the domain settings. nor can I change any of the settings locally or with DA priv. how can this be done?