Hi Trevor,

Thank you for updating and thanks all the input.

From the system info. it shows

System Manufacturer: VMware, Inc.
System Model: VMware Virtual Platform

This indicates the OS is running at VMware Virtual Platform. Since the basic hardware environment which VMware created is different as the real environment and VMware is a third-party software. We don't familiar with its architecture. Therefore, we cannot deliver any suggestions base on unfamiliar environment. In addition, third-party software is do beyond our support boundary. Thank you for your understanding and cooperating.

Have a nice day!

Best regards,

Inn Jin (MSFT)
