Re: Connection in Google

Source:
http://www.tech−archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windows.server.sbs/2008−03/msg00825.html

- From: "Lanwench [MVP − Exchange]" <lanwench@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
- Date: Thu, 6 Mar 2008 09:49:02 −0500

JosephB <josephbyrns@xxxxxxxxx> wrote:

> Whenever I do an internet search for anything containing the word
> 'connection', I am met with the following error in IE:
>
> Internet Explorer cannot display the webpage
>
> Most likely causes:
> You are not connected to the Internet.
> The website is encountering problems.
> There might be a typing error in the address.
>
> I have and SBS network using a separate hardware firewall for internet > access, but cannot see any means of blocking the connection in there.
>
> This actually happens in Google, Yahoo, altavista but NOT msn or ask,
> I haven't tried any others. Using firefox I just get a blank screen > without any error.
>
> Does anyone have any ideas?
>
> Thanks,
>
> Joseph

No idea − have you tried this from multiple computers on your network to see if you can reproduce the results?

.