

Re: Virus protection out of date

Source:

<http://www.tech-archive.net/Archive/Windows/microsoft.public.windowsupdate/2005-05/msg01530.html>

- From: "Jack E Martinelli" <jemartin_DELETE@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Mon, 23 May 2005 10:00:30 -0400
-

Removing Norton AntiVirus 2003 or earlier by using the Rnav2003.exe removal utility when Add/Remove programs fails

<http://service1.symantec.com/SUPPORT/nav.nsf/docid/2001092114452606>

How to uninstall Norton AntiVirus 2000 manually when installed under Windows 95/98/Me

<http://service1.symantec.com/SUPPORT/sunset-c2000kb.nsf/pfdocs/1999084209658964?Open>

<http://castlecops.com/p529294-At Start up annoying folder keeps coming up How to stop.html>

Jack E. Martinelli 2002-05 MS MVP for Shell/User / DTS

Help us help you: <http://www.dts-L.org/goodpost.htm>

In Memorium: Alex Nichol

<http://www.microsoft.com/windowsxp/expertzone/meetexperts/nichol.msp>

Your cooperation is very appreciated.

"touristth" <touristth@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message news:9C4AADAD-CF2C-4061-B51D-FB78D7E294C2@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

> I get a message from Symatec saying that my virus protection is out of date - > about once a minute, and I can't seem to turn it off. I use AVG, and don't > really want to use Norton, but it came w/my computer and I've tried > uninstalling it, but it keeps coming back! I've gone to the Windows Security

> Center and selected "change the way Security Center alerts me" and unchecked

> the boxes for that say alert me w/ regards to my virus protection settings > and hit "OK", but then less than a minute later, the message comes up and > when I go back to the Windows security center, the boxes are checked again.

> What is happening? Why can't I gain control over my computer?

.

Re: Virus protection out of date

- References:

- ◆ Virus protection out of date

- ◆ From: touristth

- Prev by Date: RE: Windows Update Problem on W-2000
- Next by Date: Issues: Can't see XP SP2 in update list and other update issues
- Previous by thread: Re: Virus protection out of date
- Next by thread: Net access for all XP users.
- Index(es):
 - ◆ Date
 - ◆ Thread