I can't find any link that offers SP3 on CD.
The link you provide is just the basic portal to Microsoft update.

I am on a dial up connection, and the prospect of downloading the entire package is daunting.

Please be patient and wait some days. The link will show up sometime.
SP3 isn't that essential than SP2 has been.

Good advice. It really seems like I have no choice in the matter anyway.

I hadn't planned on installing right away. I will keep an eye on this forum for possible problems that seem to relate to my system, hardware, software, etc.

Thanks for the feedback
